Illustrator's heartbreak BINGO

No worries we can push the deadline from Friday pm to Monday am. You're welcome.	Here are a few sketches I did that I think would be great ideas !	Here is a moodboard. none of your work is in it	We'd love to work with you ! receives quote It's just between you an another illustrator.	After sending 2 days of work This is a great start !
Ghosting	Sorry your name isn't on the final image, we'll make sure it is if there is another publication.	Hey ! Do you want to work on this ? Let me know ! no information on the project whatsoever	We don't usually use a contract. You can trust us.	Automatic email received when you send the sketches Hey, I'm on vacation until the [2 weeks from now]
Love how this came out ! I forgot but can you send social media crops for list of 10 platforms	Love the concept, one little thing though... proceeds to change the whole concept		Can we change the characters to be more[white/cis/straight/able/etc]?	We don't really have an illustration budget yet.
I think this one character is enough to convey "diversity".	No it's not paid but this is for a great cause ! Well yes the printer is paid but...	We'd love to pay you more but we don't want to create a precedent.	Can you send the layered file ? Just to try something.	Exposure
Work-For-Hire	So the client hasn't paid us yet so we can't pay you either.	We need you to do a test. No it's not paid it's just a little test.	More famous illustrators than you haven't ask for that much !	Can you draw dogs? We saw cats and foxes in your portfolio but we need someone who can draw dogs.
